

Alfred Lambert

Rushworth Chronicle

29 July, 1938

Mr. Alfred Lambert, a well-known prospector of this district, died in the Mooroopna Hospital on Tuesday morning.

For some years past Mr Lambert has been seeking the elusive yellow metal here and during that time he had made many finds.

The last remains were interred in Rushworth cemetery on Wednesday last.