

Charles Allen

Rushworth Chronicle

1 September, 1916

Yet another old identity of the district to pass away was Mr Charles Allen, of the Hard Hills, Rushworth.

Deceased was 77 years of age and for some years past has been rather feeble. He was an old resident of Bailieston before coming to Rushworth, and was very well known.

His death took place on Wednesday afternoon, the cause being senile decay. He also leaves a large family of grown-up children.

The funeral will take place this afternoon.
