

Charles G. Green

Rushworth Chronicle

4 September, 1936

Another old resident passed away suddenly on the 25th August, in Mooroopna Hospital in the person of Mr. Charles G. Green of Whroo.

The late Mr. Green was born in Castlemaine in 1868. The earlier part of his life was spent in Bendigo and surrounding districts, he being one of Bendigo's most popular firemen and footballers.

In 1904 he married Louisa Brooks, of Bendigo, then coming to live in Bailieston as engine driver at the well-known Byron mine of Bailieston..

He later shifted to Whroo, taking up forest work and was foreman for a number of years.

He remained in Whroo until the day before his death when he was taken to Mooroopna with pneumonia.

He leaves a widow and two children to mourn the loss of a devoted husband and father.

The burial service was carried out by Rev. C. V. J. Deverell, of Murchison.

Rushworth Cemetery listings include a Charles Green.

Mrs. C. Green and family desire to thank all kind friends for their letters of sympathy during their recent sad bereavement, particularly Mrs. R. Darroch, Mr. Beck, Lance Coyle, Mrs. Prentice, Rev. Deverell and Mr. and Mrs. Rosenfield. Will all please accept this as a personal acknowledgement of their heartfelt gratitude.

McDonald Street, Rushworth.