

Clarice Armstrong

Rushworth Chronicle

10 October, 1902

Mr Joseph Armstrong's friends will be sorry to learn that his eldest daughter, aged about 11 years, expired at Benalla on Wednesday after a long and painful illness.

The funeral will move from the Rushworth railway station to-morrow on the arrival of the train.

Benalla Standard

14 October, 1902

Bereavement. — Mr. J. T. Armstrong, guard of the Victorian Railways, stationed at Benalla, last week sustained a sad bereavement by the death of his little daughter Clarice Alice, aged 10 years, the cause of death being syncope.

The remains were taken to Rushworth for burial on Thursday evening, the coffin being carried to the railway station by a number of Mr. Armstrong's confreres, and was followed by between 30 and 40 of the playmates of the deceased.

Very much sympathy has been expressed for Mr. and Mrs. Armstrong in their trouble.

Rushworth Chronicle

17 October, 1902

The remains of Mr Joseph Armstrong's daughter, whose death we recorded last week, were interred in the Rushworth cemetery on Friday last, a number of sympathetic friends being in attendance.

The Rev. J. R. Walker officiated at the grave. Mr Anderson had charge of the funeral arrangements.