OBITUARY

A sad death occurred at Rushworth on Sunday morning last, when Mr and Mrs Ab. Lapeyre, of Moora Road, had the misfortune to lose their second youngest son, Cliff, owing to an attack of that dreaded scourge, diphtheria.

The poor little fellow, who was a fine sturdy lad of six years, was at school only a few days previously, and the end came very quickly in his case.

The utmost sympathy is felt for the parents in their great loss.

The remains were interred in the local cemetery on Monday afternoon, the funeral obsequies being performed by the Rev. J. G. Miller.
