

Daughter of Mr R. Muir

Rushworth Chronicle

19 January, 1912

Mr R. Muir, of Rushworth, had the misfortune to lose one of his children, a little girl aged two years, on Sunday last, the cause of death being inflammation of the bowels.

The child was only ill a very short time, and death ensued rather suddenly.