

Eleanor Smith

Rushworth Chronicle

30 July, 1886

SMITH.—On 23rd July, at Murchison, of senile debility, Eleanor Smith, of Rushworth, relict of Thomas Heathorn Smith, Chemist, Rushworth in her 76th year.

On Friday last one of the oldest residents of Rushworth passed away to her long home - "to that bourne whence no traveller returns." Mrs Smith could count 30 years residence in this district, her husband and sons having carried on the business of chemists during the whole of that time in this town. The respected lady during that long period has been well known and widely respected....

[newspaper report illegible – State library copy badly damaged]

.... many friends followed her remains to Rushworth Cemetery on