

Evelyn Cameron

Rushworth Chronicle

3 October, 1913

A very sad death occurred at Rushworth early on Monday morning last, when Mrs Don Cameron, of Stanhope Road, had the misfortune to lose her little daughter, Eveline Phyllis, aged nine years, the cause of death being acute pneumonia.

Deceased, who was a sturdy little girl, was ill but a few days, and the blow is a severe one to the bereaved mother and family.

The remains were interred in the local cemetery on Tuesday afternoon in the presence of a large number of sympathisers, including deceased's late schoolmates, who also provided a nice wreath.

The Rev. Father Dunne read the service.
