

Francis Pollon

Rushworth Chronicle

30 December, 1887

We are sorry to have to record the death of Mr F. T. Pollon, for many years resident of Coy's Diggings.

He has been suffering for a long time from chronic disease of the heart and lungs, to which complaint he succumbed on Wednesday evening last. He leaves a widow and large family to mourn loss.

The remains will be interred in the Whroo cemetery this afternoon, at three o'clock.

Cemetery records show Mr Pollon as 74 years.
