

G. Marsland

Rushworth Chronicle

30 November, 1894

Another of the old identities of Rushworth passed away on Sunday morning last when G. Marsland succumbed to an attack of miner's complaint, from which he had suffered for some years.

Deceased was 65 years of age, and had been a resident of the district for something like 40 years, during which time he had followed the occupation of a miner.

The remains were interred in the Rushworth cemetery on Tuesday, the funeral arrangements being in the hands of Mr F. Milward. The Rev. J. R. Walker officiated at the grave.
