

George Davis

Murchison Advertiser

10 January, 1919

A sad death occurred at Rushworth on Monday afternoon last, when, after a lengthy illness, Mr George Davis passed peacefully away.

The deceased was quite a young man, only 37 years of age, and was a native of Whroo. He was a son of the late Geo. Davis.

The deceased, in his early youth, had engaged considerably in athletics, and it was perhaps due to the strenuous training of those days that his health later became impaired.

He was the possessor of a genial disposition and was generally respected.

The remains were interred in the Rushworth cemetery on Thursday, Rev. Johns conducting the funeral service, whilst Mr E. F. Anderson had charge of the mortuary arrangements.
