

George Mackrodt

Rushworth Chronicle

10 April, 1896

George Mackrodt, who had resided on Rushworth some thirty years, expired at his residence, Moora road, on Saturday last after a lingering illness.

The deceased, who was highly respected for his many good qualities, leaves a wife and young family to mourn their loss.

The remains were interred in the Rushworth cemetery on Monday last.

The Rev. J. R. Walker officiated at the grave. The funeral arrangements were well carried out by Mr Medhurst.

Rushworth Chronicle
1896

28 August,

The ladies (Mesdames Weir and Chapman) collecting on behalf of the widow of the late Mr Mackrodt, under the auspices of the Rushworth Benevolent and Dorcas Society, desire gratefully to intimate that they succeeded in collecting sufficient to meet the funeral expenses and to afford some little help to the widow.

Mrs Mackrodt also desires to return thanks to the subscribers and collectors.