

George Scott

Waranga Chronicle

24 April, 1879

It is with feelings of great regret we have to chronicle the death of Mr George Scott, a resident of over twenty years' standing in this district. Deceased was taken ill a week or two ago, but no fatal termination was expected until nearly the last moment.

The late Mr Scott, who was unmarried, was well known and respected throughout the district, and much sympathy is manifested for his bereaved relatives.

The remains will be interred today at the family grave in the Rushworth cemetery.
