Mr H. Singleton, of the Moora Hotel, Moora road, expired at his residence on Monday evening.

Deceased, who was formerly a miner, some four years ago took possession of the hotel, and was in occupation up to the time of his death, which resulted from a general break-up of the system.

The funeral took place on Wednesday afternoon, and was largely attended.

IN MEMORIAM.

In affectionate remembrance of Henry Singleton, who died on 27th May, 1889.

We miss thy kind and helping hand,
Thy fond and earnest care;
Our home is dark without thee,
We miss you everywhere.
We placed his hands down by his side,
We kissed his cold, cold brow,
And in our aching hearts we know
We have no father now.
