

Obituary

Mrs. H. Crilly.

The sudden death last Thursday at her residence, Carag Carag, of Mrs. Hetty Crilly, has removed one of the district's most respected ladies.

The late Mrs. Crilly, who was aged 69 years, spent her early years in the Moora district, and her marriage with Mr. John Robert Crilly took place at Rushworth. For the past 40 years she had resided at Carag, except for a period of time in Rushworth. She was devoted to her home and family and had won the affection of a wide circle of friends by her kindness and hospitality.

Predeceased by her husband eight years ago, she leaves a family of six sons, Jack (Strathallan), George (Kyabram), Les. (Kyabram), Cliff (Rochester), Eric (Stanhope), and Doug. (Carag), and two daughters, Helen (Mrs. J. Adams, Camberwell), and Evelyn (Melbourne).

The funeral took place last Friday after a service at Rushworth Presbyterian church, conducted by Mr. J. D. Reekie, who also officiated at the graveside at Rushworth cemetery.

The coffin was carried by her six sons, and the pall-bearers were Messrs W. Gilbee (nephew), W. Crilly (brother-in-law), E. Hitchcock, J. Stewart, N. Enders and E. Davies.
