

James Fitzpatrick

Murchison Advertiser

17 January, 1919

It was with feelings of deep regret that the residents of Rushworth and district learned of the death of Mr James Fitzpatrick, contractor, of Stanhope Road, Rushworth, which took place at his late residence on Saturday afternoon last after an illness of only about a week's duration, the cause of death being pleurisy and pneumonia.

Deceased, who was 57 years of age, was a son of the late Thomas Fitzpatrick, who kept the old Imperial Hotel, Rushworth, in the earlier days.

He was a man of a very quiet disposition, and was highly respected by all who knew him, as was shown by the very large number of people who accorded him the last tribute of respect on Sunday afternoon, when his remains were interred in the local cemetery.

Deceased leaves a wife to mourn his death, and to her the fullest sympathy is extended.

The Rev. Father Tehan conducted the funeral service, while Mr E Anderson had charge of the mortuary arrangements.
