

James Goodier

Waranga Chronicle

8 June, 1883

Death still reigns supreme amongst us, plying his sickle as busily as ever. The latest of those who have gone to the bourne [destination] whence none return is Mr James Goodier, farmer, of Moora, a resident of twenty years standing.

He succumbed on Sunday last to that fell disease phthisis, of which he has long been a sufferer.

The respect in which he was held was evidenced by the numerous concourse of sorrowing friends who followed his remains to the last resting place, in the Rushworth Cemetery, on Tuesday.
