

John Gregson

Rushworth Chronicle

20 October, 1893

An old and respected mining identity passed away at his residence, Church Hill, Rushworth, early on Sunday morning last, in the person of Mr John Gregson, at the ripe old age of 73 years.

Deceased was a native of Lancashire, England, and arrived in the colonies in the early days.

He came to Rushworth about 40 years ago, since which time he has followed the calling of a miner with varied success until the last few years, when he became too indisposed to do anything.

A number of deceased's friends showed the last token of respect by following his remains to the Rushworth cemetery on Monday, the burial service being conducted by the Rev. W. H. Chapman.

Mrs Gregson, who survives her husband, has been in a very low state since his demise.
