

John Guy

Rushworth Chronicle

8 March, 1895

DEATH.

GUY.—On the 7th inst., at Lisadurne Farm, Moora, John Guy, a very old colonist. Aged 80.

Funeral Notice.

The friends of the late MR JOHN GUY are respectfully invited to follow his remains to the Rushworth Cemetery. The funeral will leave his late residence, Dr Heily's farm, this day (FRIDAY), at 2 p.m., arriving in Rushworth at 3 p.m.

Rushworth Chronicle
1895

15 March,

The remains of the late Mr John Guy, who has been residing on Dr Heily's farm, were interred in the Rushworth cemetery on Friday last, Father Ryan officiating at the grave.

The deceased was an old colonist, having been on Ballarat in the early fifties.

He was much respected for his sterling honesty.