

John McNaughton (or Alexander McNaughton)

Rushworth Chronicle

4 February, 1897

John McNaughton, an old identity of Coy's [Diggings], died on the 26th ult. [January].

The remains were interred in the Whroo Cemetery on Saturday.

The interment register for Whroo cemetery and the plaque prepared from those records include a burial of date of 29 January, 1887, for Alexander McNaughton. There may have been two different McNaughtons. Or there may have been an error in the records, 1887 shown when 1897 was intended. The latter seems more likely as only one McNaughton appears on the list.
