

John Allen

Rushworth Chronicle

8 December, 1911

Mr John Allen, an old miner of the Nine Mile, near Rushworth, died in the Mooroopna Hospital on Wednesday last, the cause of death being senile decay.

The old man, who was a very decent, upright character, has been in the district for the past forty years.

The remains will be brought to Rushworth by train to day, and will be interred in the local cemetery, the funeral being timed to leave immediately on arrival of the mid-day train.
