

John Laracy, junr.

Rushworth Chronicle

4 May, 1894

Mr John Laracy's friends will learn with extreme regret that his son John expired at his father's residence, Girgarre East, on Friday last, from phthisis.

The deceased, who was only 23 years of age and almost a native of the district, was a most well-behaved young man and a great favorite with all who knew him.

Great sympathy is felt with his relations at their loss. The appreciation in which life was held was amply shown by the large number who followed the remains to the Rushworth cemetery on Sunday.

The last rites at the grave were performed by the Rev. Father O'Connell. Mr Anderson was the undertaker.
