

Louey Sutor

Rushworth Chronicle

19 January, 1906

Mr Louey Sutor, an old identity of the Rushworth district, passed away on Sunday last.

Deceased was an old miner and years ago was a familiar figure on the various diggings throughout the State. Of late years, however, he was past work and enjoyed the privileges afforded under the Old Age Pensions Act.

He was a quiet, inoffensive man, and was generally respected. The remains were interred in the local cemetery on Monday.
