

Matthew Hamilton

Rushworth Chronicle

22 February, 1935

The death of Mr. Matthew Hamilton, of Rushworth, which occurred at Mooroopna Hospital, removes one of the finest carpenters and joiners ever in the district.

An accomplished tradesman, many monuments of his skill exist in homes around Rushworth and Stanhope.

He had resided here for about 30 years, being employed mainly by Mr. D. Crothers, and was just a few days short of 73 when he died.

He leaves a sorrowing widow and one son.

The remains were interred in the Presbyterian section of Rushworth cemetery, Rev E. A. Hinson officiating at the graveside.
