

Michael Carlin, presumed buried Rushworth

Waranga Chronicle

3 January, 1878

A case of awfully sudden death occurred during Thursday night. Michael Carlin, an old resident of Rushworth, went to bed in his usual health on Thursday evening, and on the following morning was found dead.

A magisterial inquiry was held by Dr Heily, and a verdict of death by apoplexy was returned.

The Rushworth cemetery list includes no Carlin, but does have a Carlan without a Christian name. Difficult to imagine Michael being buried elsewhere.
