

Michael Tracey

Rushworth Chronicle

9 October, 1885

We regret to have to report the death of Michael Tracey, who for many years had been mining on Rushworth, and was highly respected for his honorable and upright conduct.

The remains were interred in the local cemetery yesterday.