Rushworth Chronicle

21 August, 1908

Mr and Mrs R. J. Peverill, of Rushworth, suffered a sad misfortune in the death of their eldest daughter Alva on Friday morning last.

Diphtheritic croup was the cause of death and the unfortunate sufferer was only ill about a week.

Deceased was a fine bright little girl of five years of age and general regret is felt for the bereaved parents.

The remains were interred on Sunday afternoon last when there was a large attendance of sympathisers. The coffin was borne by young girls and a large number of recent playmates followed.

The Rev. F. C. Vian read the burial service.
