CORNER. ---- Passed away at the Melbourne Hospital, on November 9th, Annie, youngest daughter of Fred and Ellen Corner, and sister of Mrs. Clark (Alice), Lila, Bill, Mrs Sullivan (Freda) and Ron. Sadly Missed.

The friends of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Corner, of Rushworth, will regret to learn of the death of their youngest daughter, Annie, which occurred at the Melbourne Hospital on Thursday last, 9th. The deceased had been a patient in the Melbourne Hospital for the past three months.

She was a bright and happy disposition and her untimely death is deeply deplored by all who knew her.

The funeral will take place at about 3 p.m. on Saturday to the Rushworth cemetery.

Rushworth Chronicle

17 November, 1933

The funeral of the late Miss Annie Corner, whose death, as reported in our last issue, occurred in the Royal Melbourne Hospital on Thursday, 9th inst., took place on Saturday, the remains being brought to Rushworth for interment in the local cemetery.

A large number followed the funeral cortege, amongst whom were a number of her former schoolmates, she having been a scholar at the Rushworth school, where she was very popular. She was only 21 years of age at the time of her death.

The funeral service of the Church of England was read by Rev. H. F. Goss.

The pall bearers were Messrs. G. Cheong, A. Budd, J. W. Poulson, W. Simpson, H. Geisler, J. Matheson.

The coffin bearers were Messrs. W. Corner, H. Poulson, R. Corner, W. Baker and the flower-bearers Messrs. B. Laracy, K. King and Roy McInnes.

There were many beautiful floral tributes.

The funeral arrangements were carried out by Mr. G. Diggle, Euroa.
