

Miss Baynton

Murchison Advertiser

4 June, 1920

A sudden death occurred at Mr W. B. Heily's residence, "Lisadurne," Rushworth, on Thursday morning.

Miss Baynton, who has acted in the capacity of housekeeper for Mr Heily for a considerable time past was taken ill about the beginning of the week, and after a very brief illness expired on Thursday.

Deceased was a woman with a fine disposition, and had made many friends in this district, so that her untimely demise has caused a widespread feeling of regret.