

Miss Eileen Collie

Murchison Advertiser

13 February, 1920

Mr Alex Collie, of Rushworth, had the great misfortune to lose his only child, Eileen, a little girl nine years of age, on Tuesday last, death taking place as the result of a severe attack of measles.

Mr Collie has been singularly unfortunate. His wife died a couple of years ago after a lingering illness.

Then twelve months ago he lost one of his children, and now he has had the terrible misfortune to lose the only other member of his family.

Much sympathy is felt for the bereaved father in his great trouble.

Footnote: Rushworth cemetery records include a listing for Eileen Collie.
