

Miss Elsie Jones

Rushworth Chronicle

14 October, 1913

Deep sympathy is felt for Mr and Mrs Sprackland, of Waranga railway station, in the sad bereavement they have suffered by the loss of Miss Elsie Jones (Mr Sprackland's stepdaughter), whose death occurred on Saturday last at the early age of 26 years.

Miss Jones had been ailing for some time with an internal complaint but bravely fought her sickness, and her bright and attractive nature formed many friendships.

The funeral took place on Tuesday, at the Rushworth cemetery, the burial service being read by Mr Raff, of the Presbyterian church.
