

Miss Norma Laurie

Rushworth Chronicle

25 December, 1932

After a brief illness the death occurred at Rushworth, on the 14th inst., of Norma Jean, aged 10 years, the daughter of Rose and the late John S. Laurie (late A.I.F.), of "Glenara", Rushworth, and sister of little Jim.

Deceased was a granddaughter of Mrs. S. Laurie of "Sutton Glen", and of Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Hammond, of Phillip street, Rushworth.

The burial took place at the Rushworth Cemetery after a service held in the Presbyterian Church, conducted by Mr. J. Forbes, who officiated at the graveside.

The, and service was attended by many relatives and friends by the scholars of the Moora Presbyterian Sunday School, who marched at the head of the funeral procession.

Much sympathy for the bereaved family was shown in beautiful floral tributes, included in which were wreaths from the class mates of Rushworth State School and from the teachers and children of Moora Sunday School.
