

Mr Cattlin

Rushworth Chronicle

21 September, 1888

Two deaths have occurred in Rushworth during the present week. As recorded in another paragraph, Mr Cattlin passed away on Sunday, and Mr Eade expired at his place of business, near the Moora Road, on Tuesday.

Oa Sunday evening last, quite a shock was experienced by those on their way to attend church service to learn that Mr Cattlin, jeweller, High Street, Rushworth, had suddenly passed away from our midst.

He was always an energetic worker for the good of the church, and his loss will be greatly felt. As a true Christian he carried out his principles in every phase of life. Our loss is truly his gain.

His remains were interred in the local cemetery on Tuesday.
