

Mr John Wall

Rushworth Chronicle

1 September, 1916

On Sunday last, one of the oldest residents of Carag, in the person of Mr John Wall, passed the great divide.

Deceased was 66 years of age, but for some considerable time prior to his demise had been gradually failing, so that his death was not unexpected. He was one of retiring disposition, nevertheless, he was widely known and highly respected, as was shown by the large number of people who followed his remains to their last resting place—the Rushworth cemetery --- on Tuesday afternoon.

Deceased leaves a wife and several grown-up children to mourn his death.

The funeral service was conducted by the Rev. Rowell, while the arrangements were in the hands of Mr E. Anderson, undertaker.
