

Mr. T. West

Murchison Advertiser

25 August, 1893

Mr T. West's friends will regret to learn that he expired at his residence, Murchison road, Rushworth, yesterday morning.

During the time he has been here, some 12 or 14 years, he has followed the occupation of a contractor, his principal works being for the shire council.

He leaves a numerous circle of friends to mourn their loss.
