

Mr. T. Clausen

Rushworth Chronicle

30 November, 1888

Mr T. Clausen's friends will learn with regret that he expired at Sandhurst on Saturday last, at the age of 68 years. The deceased was a native of Denmark.

Before leaving his native country he served throughout the war against Prussia, and received promotion and a clasp for bravery.

He arrived in this colony about 30 years ago, and had resided in Rushworth nearly ever since.

The deceased, who followed the occupation of a miner, was in comfortable circumstances, having owned some good claims in Old Ned's Gully.

The remains were interred in the Rushworth Cemetery on Sunday last, the funeral being numerously attended.
