

Mr T. J. J. Wyatt

Waranga Chronicle

21 March, 1878

We deeply regret to have to record another name to the already long list of late deaths in the district. Mr T. J. J. Wyatt, well known for years past in all parts of Victoria as a most successful photographic operator, breathed his last at the residence of his brother-in-law, Mr G. A. Scurry, on Friday morning last, 15th inst.

The late Mr Wyatt was in remarkably good health and spirits on Monday week last, but suffered an attack of paralysis on the following day, from which he never rallied.

His remains were interred in the Rushworth cemetery on Saturday, the 16th inst., about three o'clock, followed by a goodly concourse of mourning friends.
