

Mr Manning

Waranga Chronicle

8 September, 1881

The Scythe-bearer has been busy in our midst lately. Mr Manning, one of the first selectors in Toolamba, expired at his residence on Thursday, from inflammation of the bowels, after an illness of only 24 hours.

Mr Manning was highly esteemed by all who knew him, and the district can ill afford [to lose] so useful a man.

His remains were interred in the Rushworth Cemetery on Saturday.

Mr W. Dixon, an old resident of Rushworth, also departed this life in the Sandhurst Hospital on Friday last, after a lingering illness.

His remains were interred in the same cemetery on Sunday. Dixon, who was a steady, industrious man, and a general favorite, leaves a wife and large family to mourn their loss.
