

Mr Colin Cameron

Rushworth Chronicle

2 January, 1942 (died 23 Dec. 1941)

CAMERON: --- On December 23 at B.N. Hospital, Rushworth, Colin, devoted husband of Annie and loving father of Lucy (Mrs. Munsey), Colina (Mrs. Don Anderson) and Douglas; dearly loved grandad of Irene and Lucy Munsey and Colin Anderson. Deeply mourned.

Deep sympathy will be expressed to Mrs. Cameron and family who suffered bereavement on December 23, by the death of Mr. Colin Cameron in his 81st year.

The deceased gentleman was born in 1860 and lived in Rushworth district all his life. In 1888 he married Annie Spence and the happy union culminated in celebration of the golden wedding just 3 ½ years ago.

The late Mr. Cameron was of that fine band of pioneers who battled along in the early days. He purchased a property on Stanhope road where he carried on farming pursuits and retiring some years ago, shifted to the home about 1 mile from Rushworth.

Of a quiet retiring disposition, he made his home his castle and he was never happier than when he had his family around him. He was one of the first members of the Caledonian Society and was a keen judge and lover of horses.

Members of the family include Lucy (Mrs. Munsey), Colina (Mrs. Don Anderson) and Douglas. Two brothers and three sisters survive him. Deep sympathy is extended to Mrs. Cameron and family in their bereavement.

The funeral took place at the Rushworth cemetery on Christmas Eve, the Rev. Mr. Blackney conducting a service at the house and also at the graveside.
