

Mr E. Hicks

Rushworth Chronicle

19 March, 1886

It is with regret that we have to report the death of Mr E. Hicks, of Rushworth.

The sad event occurred at his father's residence on Tuesday evening last. The deceased has been identified with the district for 30 years, having been engaged in mining pursuits for nearly the whole of that time.

Mr Hicks purchased a business site at Cooma a short time since, which his failing health, however, compelled him to relinquish.

In unison with his many friends we prefer our sympathy and condolence to his bereaved widow, who is left with four children to mourn their loss, and also to his other sorrowing relatives.

The remains were interred in the local cemetery yesterday.
