

Mr George Bird

Rushworth Chronicle

27 May 1904

An old identity of the Rushworth district, Mr George Bird, expired rather suddenly at his residence, Stanhope road, on Tuesday. Deceased only took bad on the previous Sunday, the cause of death being some bowel complaint. Bird was of a very quiet, inoffensive disposition and was well thought of.

The remains were interred in the Rushworth cemetery yesterday.