

Mrs Bartlett

Rushworth Chronicle

24 October, 1884

Another old resident of Rushworth has, we regret to say, gone to her long home.

We refer to Mrs Bartlett, who expired at her daughter's residence, Numurkah, on Tuesday.

The deceased was highly esteemed for her many good qualities.

The remains were removed to Rushworth and interred in the local cemetery on the following day.