

Mrs Buchanan

Murchison Advertiser

4 July 1902

A great many people both in this and the Lancefield district will regret to learn that Mrs Buchanan expired at her daughter's residence, Waranga, on Friday last at the ripe age of 86 years. The deceased, who was a very old colonist, was highly esteemed for her many good qualities. The remains were followed to their last resting-place, the Rushworth cemetery, by a large number of people on Sunday last. The Rev. J. Weir officiated at the grave. Mr G. Anderson carried out the mortuary arrangements.

Born in 1814, Mrs Buchanan was indeed an early colonist.
