Rushworth Chronicle

21 February, 1930

BRASHER. --- On 16th February, at Mooroopna, Celina Elizabeth, dearly beloved wife of John Brasher, and mother of Rupert and George, aged 29 years.

The sudden and unexpected death of Mrs. J. Brasher, wife of Mr. J. Brasher, of Stanhope, which took place at the Mooroopna Hospital on Sunday last cast quite a gloom over the Stanhope district.

The deceased lady was taken to Mooroopna early last week, but nothing serious was anticipated, and she appeared to be getting on well. On Sunday she took a bad turn, and passed away as stated.

The late Mrs. Brasher was a daughter of Mrs. and late Mr. W. Frowd, of Girgarre, and was very highly esteemed by all who knew her. She leaves her sorrowing husband and two young children to mourn her loss.

The funeral took place on Monday last, the remains being brought from Mooroopna for interment in the Rushworth cemetery.

The burial service was conducted by the Rev. F. G. Faram (Presbyterian).
