

Mrs D. McKay

Murchison Advertiser

26 June, 1903

Another very old identity of the district, Mrs D. McKay, of McKay's Point, Gunn's Swamp, Rushworth, expired on Wednesday last.

Deceased, who was 88 years of age, had resided on her small holding for many years.

Her husband and her only son predeceased her some years ago.

Death was due to senile debility.

The remains were interred in the Rush worth cemetery yesterday, Mr W. Medhurst having charge of the funeral arrangements.
