

Mrs Don McLeod

Rushworth Chronicle

20 May, 1910

OBITUARY

It is with feelings of regret that we record the death of Mrs D. McLeod, wife of Mr Don. McLeod, of Nuggetty Gully, Rushworth, which sad event occurred on Saturday last.

Deceased had been ill for some very considerable time and death was no doubt a happy release from her sufferings.

Mrs McLeod, who was very highly respected, was a daughter of the late Mr James Shewan, and was a native of Rushworth. She was but a young woman, only being 42 years of age, and every sympathy is felt for the bereaved husband and six young children, who are left to mourn their sad loss.

The remains were Interred in the local cemetery on Monday afternoon, the funeral being attended by a large number of sympathisers. The Rev. J. R. Walker conducted the funeral service.

Memorial Services

Church of England memorial services, to commemorate the burial of King Edward VII will be held this (Friday) morning, at 11 o'clock at Murchison, and at 3 o'clock in the afternoon at Rushworth.
