

Mrs E. Lloyd

Rushworth Chronicle

18 March, 1898

DEATH.

LLOYD.—On the 10th March, 1898, at her daughter's residence, Hillside Cottage, Rushworth, E. Lloyd, aged 66 years.

Dearest mother, thou has't left us,
We thy loss most deeply feel;
But it is God who hath bereft us,
He can all our sorrows heal.

—Inserted by her loving daughters, M. J. Brideson and E. Smith.

Mrs Lloyd, senior, who was a very old resident of Rushworth, passed away after a long illness on Thursday evening, the 10th inst., and the remains were interred in the local cemetery on the following Saturday, the Rev. J. R. Walker officiating at the grave and Mr Medhurst having charge of the funeral obsequies.

The late Mrs Lloyd was an active business woman in her day, and if energy were alone required to amass riches she should have made a large fortune many
