

Mrs Ellen Johnson

Waranga Chronicle

3 July, 1885

DEATH.

JOHNSON.—On the 27th June, at Rushworth, Ellen Johnson. Aged, 54 years.

Dear mother, thou has left us,
We can see you here no more,
You have left this world of sorrow
For that bright and shining shore.
Thou art not forgot, dear mother,
Or ever wilt thou be,
Until Almighty God above
Shall call us unto thee.

—BY HER CHILDREN.

Considerable regret was expressed in Rushworth on Saturday, when it became known that Mrs Johnson, the well-known landlady of the Nuggety Hotel, and one of the oldest residents of the place, had passed away during the previous night, deceased, who has been ailing for a number of years, at last having succumbed to a general breakup of the system.

The large number of persons who followed the remains to their last resting place in the Rushworth cemetery testified to the respect in which she had been held.

She leaves a family, the youngest of whom is about 14 years of age, to mourn their loss.

A beautiful floral cross was given by Mrs Wigg out of regard for the deceased, and a wreath by Mrs Phillips accompanied it.