

Mrs Growse

Waranga Chronicle

29 June, 1883

It is with feelings of regret that we are compelled to announce the demise of Mrs Growse, a lady long and favorably known to all old residents of Rushworth.

For many years her husband, who we may mention died only 11 months since, was assistant to Mr Walbran but at the time of his death was established in Kyabram as a general storekeeper.

Upon his death the business was carried on by his now deceased wife.

Mrs Growse expired at her residence at Kyabram on Sunday last, and her remains were interred on Tuesday in the Rushworth Cemetery.
