

Mrs Hannan

Rushworth Chronicle

3 May, 1901

Mrs Hannan's friends will regret to learn that she passed away on Monday last, aged 61 years.

The deceased was a very old resident of Rush worth, arriving here with her first husband (Thomas Fitzpatrick) in the year 1857, when mining was about at its best. Mr Fitzpatrick, who was lucky at mining (especially at Nuggetty Hill), before long purchased the Imperial hotel.

Some time after her first husband's death she married the late Mr James Hannan. She continued to keep the hotel till a few years since, when failing health compelled her to relinquish business, and she let it to Mr Dooley.

The remains were followed to the Rushworth cemetery by a large number of sympathisers.

The Rev. J. R. Walker officiated at the grave. Mr Anderson had charge of the mortuary arrangements.

She leaves a numerous family to mourn their loss.
